

Fishing for a New Word

Fishing for a New Word!

Think of one word you use often when you write (pretty, went, nice, said, for example). Find other, more descriptive words, that you could use instead. Write each of the new words on a fish. The next time you need to use your original word, "fish" for a new word and use it instead!